

Storyteller:	Baum, Tim	Interviewer:	Baum, Michele D.
Date:	June 10, 2006	Original StoryCorps Log Files:	MBX001450_L1 MBX001450_L2 MBX001450_L3

Timecode Notes

0:35	He talks about the day we met. He remember her roommate better. He remembers them being drenched.
1:53	They met later at the acting class.
2:15	She pinched him on his behind. He was startled.
3:12	He grew up in Erie, PA. Happy, normal childhood. Very supportive parents.
4:53	What about the beach really touches you? The sunsets, playing softball, and swimming.
6:07	He used to bike and peninsula when he was not working or scouting.
7:18	His 16 th birthday at summer camp.
7:59	What was it like being in woods with Dad and friends? He was overweight, likes sitting in comfy chair. He was very supportive of the guys. A lot of cabin scouts.
10:11	He and his dad did not have a father and son relationship except for scouts.
10:51	He did not scout as much with his son Chris – small regret.
12:34	Order of the arrow vigil? It's secret rites of passage. He hopes Chris find rite of passage.
13:52	How did your involvement in scouts change you? Being comfortable with outdoor situation, getting task done with group of people and learning to tie a knot.
15:24	What do you remember about the day we got married? Sitting around hot tub waiting while you make yourself beautiful.
16:37	Looking down the aisle. Long distance dating for seven years before wedding.
17:27	Other memories – highlights.
18:55	What first attracted you about me? 20 years of marriage and seven dates. First thing – her smile and she laughs at his jokes and he is still startled.
20:22	He asks questions.
20:32	What was it like growing up as an only child? Lovely seventies but special. She is closer to her parents and later drove her away from them.
22:17	Now has insight into what he is dealing with.
24:46	We did not have much luck trying to have another child? I did not want to do it.
25:20	Early memories of Johnstown? Her father worked in (a place) for 47 years.
27:26	Her mother was in dry during WW II. They met after war, at a nightclub. Dad liked mom's legs. She liked his teeth.
28:34	Memory of mother...
29:10	She hopes Chris will appreciate recording one day. He recalls her parents.
30:01	Her career. Journalism- major changed to English because she wanted to write novels. Witnessing – became journalist for 20 years. Worked in internet part of CNN; media relations for Pittsburgh...writes news releases or pitches.

33:02	Favorite story? Finest assignment – one of her first: covering shooting of movie in Johnstown. Tom Cruise was not a star yet.
35:07	Then you took a job when you stood as union president of Chattanooga Times. She did not get rehired after a merger.
37:07	What do you remember about Chris's birth? In labor for 34 hours, awful thunderstorm.
38:29	Other special memories? When he stuck a raisin up his nose.
39:24	He was happy and talkative.