

Storyteller:	Huffner, David	Interviewer:	Huffner, David E.
Date:	June 24, 2006	Original StoryCorps Log Files:	MBX001521_L1

Timecode Notes

00:35	Childhood hero – Roberto Clemente – baseball player.
2:05	After the Pirates won the World Series he was so excited he cut his wrist running around.
3:10	Why won't you get a new cat?
3:40	Best memories of times with David
4:45	Worst memory.
6:20	Best prank he ever pulled.
8:25	Owens his own business – training people in tech fields.
9:40	Favorite relatives.
10:50	David running into a glass mirror.
11:50	Childhood food stories.
13:40	Life lessons.
15:20	Earliest memory.
18:00	Hardest times when David was growing up – easy kid.
18:50	Best memories of childhood – summers playing baseball.
22:45	Wanted to be a garbage can when he grew up.
24:15	David E asks David Sr. questions
28:00	Favorite songs
29:15	Opinion on Iraq War before family member went to war. Felt it was a shoddy case – still feels so but now has personal stake.
30:50	Songs he used to sing to David Jr.
32:15	Lessons from work life – go after what you like.
33:35	Didn't enjoy school.
34:35	Choosing David's name.
35:15	Where he'd like to travel.
36:00	David Jr's best friends in Reno.